

Vision Committee May 3rd AGENDA

1. Key values of for our graduates.

Altruism- opposite of selfishness, practice of concern for the welfare of others

Versatility-capable of doing many things competently

Great character-responsible, stewardship, commitment, dependability

Values individual, community and family- (individuality, family values, unity, and relationships)

Possible Vision Statements

- A. All Frontier students will champion their value of individualism, family and community as demonstrated by their charity, versatility, scholarship, and service to others.
- B. Frontier's vision is for every child to be competent in the skills and knowledge required for life long success as champions of respect for individuals, family and the community.
- C. Students who graduate from Frontier have the academic skills , life skills, and motivation for service that will benefit themselves, their families and the community.
- D. A Frontier education provides life skills and academic skills that allow students to be successful in any endeavor. It also teaches the values of charity, service and community.
- E. Frontier graduates are altruistic, versatile, posses great character and are champions of individual, family and community values.
- F. Frontier students place great value on every individual, their family, and the community. They use their versatile skills to bring success in element of their lives.

2. Key beliefs of our community to be reinforced by our district and demonstrated by our graduates.

This community believes

- 1in community service to support one another with empathy and generosity.
- 2all work is dignified and of value to society.
- 3show compassionate and tolerant to others and self, without sacrificing personal values.
- 4students are responsible, dependable young men and women who demonstrate a commitment to their learning in and outside of the classroom.

Question

Does the community expect our school to teach their students the fundamental skills and knowledge required to be successful in college and/or career?

3. Key skills and/or knowledge for all Frontier graduates shall include:

1. Comprehensive reader
2. Effective listener, writer, and speaker
3. Perseverance
4. Critical thinking
5. Grit/hard working
6. Problem solving
7. Self-awareness/ self-monitoring
8. Balance of life (soft/people) skills and academic skills
9. Information literate
10. Understand how to successfully pursue job and/or college

4. Next Steps

- a. Board sub-committee will finalize vision and belief statements.
- b. Sub-committee will present to Board of Education for feedback at Board workshop.
- c. Board will approve final vision and belief statements.