

Fanboys or Subordinate conjunctions? Combine the sentences using the conjunction in parenthesis. You may switch nouns and pronouns. Write out the sentence. Make sure the punctuation is correct.

1. His mother works late.      John helps cook the dinner.      (when)

---

---

2. Fran really needs to pass this test.      She is doing some extra studying.      (so)

---

---

3. Joe did poorly on the test.      Joe must stay after school.      (because)

---

---

4. It managed to win the game.      The team played poorly.      (yet)

---

---

5. Mike cannot throw the ball.      He could not kick it to save his life.      (nor)

---

---

6. The economy is improving.      Voters are anxious and angry.      (even though)

---

---

7. You must pass a driving test.      You cannot get a license.      (unless)

---

---

8. The Electoral College casts its votes.      The president is not officially elected.
(until)

---

---