

Day 53 April 1

Final day of the quarter.

Goals:

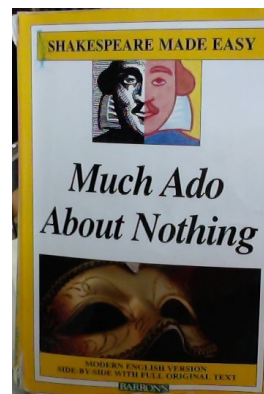

- Go over more proverbs
- Make-up missing work
- Work on IR project

Day 53 April 1 (Remote)

Final day of the quarter.

Drop off Omnivore books!

Pick up Much Ado.

Goals:

- Go over more proverbs
- Make-up missing work
- Work on IR project

P. 26 - 27 in ELA Text Pack - more room to take notes

12. Don't play your trumpet. B. Don't brag.

13. Treat others the way you want to be treated.

27. Courageous people are also "lucky" people.

44. You have to taste the pudding to know if it's good.

B. You have to actually test sth. to know if it's good.

45. Spills can happen even at the last second. Sth. can go wrong even in the last moments.

25. Trim your expectations according to your resources.

86. In a legal dispute, the person who has disputed item, usually wins.

7. All humans make mistakes; therefore, be understanding and forgiving.

68. Dogs can be nasty when wakened too soon. If a situation is stable, don't interfere.

10. Some people cannot take a hint.

40. Having a little is better than having nothing at all.

20. You can accomplish more by being kind, etc. than by being rude, bullying etc.

47. What can't be fixed, must be put up with.

84. When getting rid of sth. bad, be sure not to get rid of the good.

24. When one opportunity passes, another opportunity opens up.

11. Family is more important (stronger) than other relationships.

42. What's done is done. Don't get upset over trivial things.

17. People who are happy and cheerful are more popular than people who are sad & complaining.

35. Better to use sth. up than to let it go to waste by neglect.