Principals Report – Shannon Thurston

Mrs. Thurston spoke about how wonderful Ms. Juron's pup-up Art show was and that all the students had a chance to walk through and enjoy. The school is focusing on a culture each month, this month is India. The Golden Spatula is back, kids are excited about it and it will be announced at the next Bee Hive. The final lockdown drill is tomorrow, parents will be informed on blackboard. The Capital Project will begin in Feb. with an interior face lift/paint job. The Building team will take a look at 2-3 choices and then let the kids and teachers vote to decide. Feb. 16th will be open house, because of the painting happening the walls will be mostly empty. The trees will be removed in Feb. Mrs. Thurston is looking into a grant for next year to help buy sun protection. May 29th South Park Ave begins construction which is scheduled to last through July 28th. The Bus loop is scheduled for June 26th – Aug. 25th. Playground is scheduled June 26th – Aug 8th. The Play court is scheduled June 26th – Aug 8th. The inside reno will start July 10th. (Mostly in the cafeteria).

Teachers Report – Helen Senese

Service Club: Crayon Initiative, they will be collecting old and broken crayons that will be sent, melted down, made into new and sent to sick kids in hospitals. They will also have a Sock Hop 13th-17th where they will collect new socks for kids and adults that will go to the Kids Clothes Closet in Hamburg.

Board Member Reports

Blasdell Elementary School 22-23 January Meeting

- Winter Wonderland Profit: $87.00 (Penguin Patch total sales = $6,125.00)
- Expenses:
  - Winter Wonderland : $1,042.39
  - Bookfair: $92.43 (Bookfair total sales = $7,702.57)
  - Misc: $11.98

The Bookfair was our biggest in sales in Blasdell's history! The school earned $3,891.04 in scholastic dollars that go right back to the school.

- Jennifer Silver: Council Delegate: Jen could not be there so Heather gave update. Mr. Swiatek was there and let them know that because of the State of Emergency no snow days that have currently been used count against our total days. So the school still has all 5 snow days remaining. The Safety E-volve system is going into the H.S. Once it is up and running the H.S. kids will be able to carry their backpacks, which will help with getting to classes on time. They are looking into buying Blue Tooth Vape Detectors. Pinehurst has a car detection system for drop off, it is planned that Blasdell will get it after our new bus loop is finished. The Big Picture Program is being worked on. It will have the students going to school for 3 days and then an internship at either ECC or Hamburg Senior Center for the other 2 days. The new public use of facilities policy will not affect the PTA and our events, we will not be charged to use the school. Feb. 1st is the next scheduled meeting.
- Tiffany Tangel: Secretary:
