

FRONTIER CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT - VIRTUAL LEARNING FROM HOME IN THE HYBRID MODEL FOR ELEMENTARY STUDENTS

OVERVIEW

All students who elect to begin the school year in an online environment can expect the following:

- Synchronous and Asynchronous Learning: All students will have a specific schedule to follow throughout their hybrid learning week, which will include online meetings with teachers and peers, independent, and small group work opportunities, and academic intervention when needed. All students will have access to Classlink and Google Classroom, which will be the primary access points for all instruction and materials.
- Attendance: Students will attend classes online as well as in person. In the event of prolonged (more than three days) personal illness or quarantine, a designated contact person at the school will remain in daily communication with the student to provide instructional support.
- New Instruction: All students will participate in new instruction aligned with the requirements and standards provided by the New York State Education Department.
- Grading: All students will be assessed. Assessments measures will be aligned with New York State Standards.

FRONTIER CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT - VIRTUAL LEARNING FROM HOME IN THE HYBRID MODEL FOR ELEMENTARY STUDENTS

- Recovery Strategies: Throughout the District, at all grade levels, teachers will be using running records, District developed assessments, and other teacher-based assessments to capture information about student skill and knowledge acquisition in advance of teaching new content. These assessment snapshots will focus on prior knowledge and core skills necessary to engage in new learning.
- Additionally, students whose skill deficits are more pronounced will be assigned to interventions to receive more targeted opportunities to build skills.
- Technology Resources: Technology needs will be addressed by providing devices and internet access to students who currently do not have sufficient access.
- Home-School Partnership: Teachers will have clear and consistent methods of communication. Families will designate an adult “learning coach” in the home who will be able to assist with navigating instruction and interacting with teachers.
- As soon as the Elementary School start and end times are communicated, the time allotments will be adjusted accordingly.
